What is Sterling Studios?

Sterling Productions and The Conexus Arts Centre are excited to announce Sterling Studios. This -new theatrical performance company features a minimum of 24 specialized workshops, 3 productions including Oliver, Seussical, The Musical, and MORE! Our unique supportive atmosphere provides a low student to mentor ratio and allows each youth the opportunity to explore their love of theatre and develop their skills as an individual.

What are the show dates?

Oliver – December 2022

Spotlight Cabaret – March 2023

Seussical, The Musical – August 2023

When are the rehearsals/workshops?

Semester 1

September to mid-December

Semester 2

January to end of March

Understanding that participants of Sterling Studios will be invested in various aspects of the arts and education we have left the months of April - July free for dance competitions, recitals, music festival, graduations, and summer holidays.

Semester 3

Our final semester offers a full 2-week summer camp. We are pleased to provide this at no additional cost to enrolled students.

Summer camps are tentatively set to run July 25-28 & July 31-Aug 3

Does my child have to audition?

Sterling Studios is a non-audition ensemble.

What will you offer?

Minimum of 24 specialized workshops

Two full length productions and one Spotlight Cabaret

The opportunity to work with artistic and technical professionals in a world class venue

Sterling Studios FAQs

2022 - 2023

What workshops will be offered?

Sterling Studios seeks to offer a wide variety of exciting workshops touching on many facets of musical theatre. Workshops will include topics such as tap, vocal solos, audition technique, improv, reading music, and more! They will be taught by a variety of professionals exposing your child to an array of techniques, experiences, and education.

What are the other benefits?

Exclusive Sterling swag
Professional headshots
And more!

How are you different?

Our program is designed to meet each child where they are at. Our team fosters growth in new talent while challenging more experienced artists, encouraging every participant to be their very best.

What is the time commitment for performers?

Each member will be required to attend the minimum rehearsals (as listed below) on the weekends for workshop and rehearsal time. Extra rehearsals may be added with notice.

6-10 years old

Saturday 9:00-11:00 am

11-16 years old

Saturday 10:00 am – 12:00 (noon)

Everyone (during prep for major stage productions

Sunday 6:30pm-7:30pm

What is the family commitment?

We do our very best to keep the time commitment to a minimum.

Each family will be expected to volunteer. Volunteering offers you the opportunity to engage with your child and share their passion for theatre.

How important is attendance?

Confidence comes with rehearsal and repetition. Your child will feel more empowered with each rehearsal they attend. Their attendance will impact their involvement in the show.

Is dance training provided?

While we encourage all members to take dance lessons at their chosen studio, it is not a requirement. We will be offering some specialized dance workshops; however extensive dance training will not be provided.

Is voice training provided?

We are excited to be offering some vocal workshops and encourage members to seek out their own voice coach. However, this is not a requirement.
